- VI. Guest Speaker
 - A. Ms. Sarah Leonardi, School Board Member, District 3
 1. School Board Members run for their positions for the same reasons people run for SGA Officer positions: to increase spirit, increase representation, and be more involved.
 2. The School Board has to deal with and constantly fix many different issues that happen at every school that their district covers.
 3. Some examples of the problems that Ms. Leonardi had to face were the reopening of schools after Covid, fixing schools when serious damages occurred, having to debate with the governor about making masks required in schools, people in the community that has disagreed with her values and choices for her district, and more changes.
 4. Ms. Leonardi has worked on having schools give free menstrual products.
 5. Ms. Leonardi is currently working on making the "Don't Say Gay" bill stop preventing employees from not being able to talk about their spouse if they are LGBTQ+.
